

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Any change that benefits the media conglomerates is absurd and goes against the First Amendment. The government is an instrument of the people. Now that means all of the people, not just a privileged few. I am opposed to any changes which benefit these companies. Democracy is about supporting many views, not trying to wipe them out.
